

Specializing in improving your environment with maximizing your resources

---

HVAC-T.A.B. (testing, adjusting and balancing) Technician

Air Solutions & Balancing is seeking a qualified experienced HVAC Technician to support the growing demand for our testing, adjusting and balancing (TAB) services. The ideal candidate should have knowledge and experience with NEBB Procedural standards for TAB, as well as related field experience with Air and Hydronics- NEBB Certified candidates preferred.

HVA

PRIMARY JOB FUNCTIONS

- Perform all testing and balancing functions in the field to complete the TAB work per specifications
- Troubleshoot faulty systems and provide recommendations for corrective actions

OTHER RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

- Transfer field data accurately onto TAB reports as needed

REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

- Understand the functions of all testing instruments for Air and Hydronics
- Read and interpret job site blue prints
- Understand and use various TAB forms

SUCCESS FACTORS

- Direct experience with the calibration, set up and operation of test equipment for balancing Air and Hydronics
- Knowledge of air and water distribution systems, ductwork and piping is desirable.
- Strong communication skills
- Flawless work ethic
- Impeccable attention to detail
- Customer service oriented
- Must be computer literate with word processing / spreadsheet software.
- Must be physically able and willing to conduct site inspections and field engineering work (climb ladders, walk on roofs, etc.)
- Mostly local New England travel, with some overnights nationwide
- AA/AS Degree, Technical/Business School Certificate or Diploma, Skilled Trades Apprenticeship, or other post high school training preferred

Benefits: 401-K Retirement package, medical plan, paid holidays, vacation, sick days.

If interested please e-mail: colleen@usabalancing.com